

The Safety Pharmacology Society
STUDENT TRAVEL AWARD APPLICATION

to the 7th Annual Meeting and Exhibition
September 19–21, 2007
Edinburgh, Scotland

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT AT SPS: JUNE 1, 2007

Eligibility Criteria:

1. Eligible candidates include high school, undergraduate or graduate students.

Required Materials:

Applicant:

1. Application form and a paper describing your research (less than 500 words) sent as an e-mail attachment
2. Resumé or curriculum vitae sent as an e-mail attachment with #1 items
3. One letter from a faculty member. Letters of recommendation/nomination should be signed and sent, postal, electronically (e.g. PDF format sent as an e-mail attachment) or FAXed to the society.

All material should be sent to:

E-mail: SPS Headquarters Fax: (703) 438-3113

Terms of the Award:

The award shall consist of:

1. The cost of airfare (flight arrangements made no less than 21 days prior to departure) to the Annual Safety Pharmacology Society Meeting, hotel expenses for up to 3 nights, a per diem up to $50 for each day present at meeting based on accompanying receipts.
2. Registration fee for the Annual Meeting.
3. SPS membership for 1 year.
4. Winners are required to present a poster for the SPS meeting, attend the poster presentation and the Award announcement for receipt of the award certificate. Note: the poster may also be entered in the Jr. Investigator Poster Contest.
5. All applicants are eligible and encouraged to present their research as a poster. To do this, submit an electronic abstract on the SPS website. Visit <http://209.183.221.48/am2007/abstractSub.asp>.

The awardees will be notified two weeks from the application deadline and the abstract will be published on the SPS Annual Meeting website. The Award is not transferable and must be returned to SPS if the awardee does not present a poster and attend the SPS Annual Meeting & Award announcement (i.e., if the awardee cannot send the poster with a colleague, the colleague cannot claim the travel award).
